

ANTIQUPE PEWTER LIDDED FLAGON MUNDEN & GROVE c 1760

Antique Georgian pewter Flagon/measure with hinged lid.

5.5 inches high.

marked to the base with touchplate mark W.M. EG in a square punch and a rose and a thistle on one stem. This is the mark for Wm Munden and Ed Grove circa 1760. There are also three other marks below which look like "hallmarks"

An Ebay Item sold at £21 however the seller has an ebay feedback score of 99.8% and over 16,000 positive feed backs (sold a lot then to 15,968 happy customers.)

So obviously buyers thought that this was not as described – not by the makers named, and not of the age given. It looks to be a light thin early 1900s reproduction.....but was it!
