

DUTCH PAINTED AND LACQUERED PEWTER

Fig. 5—One of a pair of pewter chestnut vases; c. 1800. (See Fig. 5a)

Fig. 6—A lacquered pewter cruet of the Louis XVI period. (From the Verster Collection)

Fig. 5a—Side-view of the vase shown in Fig. 5.

Fig. 7—A set of two bombe candlesticks (11 $\frac{3}{4}$  in. high) and a coffee urn (18 $\frac{1}{2}$  in. high). All are painted in deep red lacquer with gold decoration, and upon the urn is a landscape with rustic scenes. Dutch, late 18th century. (From the Arzjman Collection)